ORDER

STANLEY R. CHESLER, District Judge.

This matter having come before the Court at the request of Ortho-McNeil Pharmaceutical Inc. and Barr Laboratories, Inc., to construe the terms "method of contraception" and "oral contraceptive unit" in claims 1 and 4 of U.S. Patent No. 6,214,815, and having heard oral argument on March 31, 2005 and having considered the written submissions of the parties;

IT IS hereby ORDERED, on this 19th day of April, 2005, for the reasons set forth in this Court's Opinion accompanying this Order and dated the same, that:

(1) the term "method of contraception" in claim 1 of the '815 patent shall be construed in all future proceedings, pursuant to Markman v. Westview Instruments, Inc., 52 F.3d 967 (Fed.Cir.1995) ( en banc ), as a means or manner that effectively prevents conception or impregnation (with contraceptive efficacy comparable to approved or potentially approvable oral contraceptive products); and

(2) the term "oral contraceptive unit" in claim 4 of the '815 patent shall be construed in all future proceedings, pursuant to Markman, 52 F.3d 967, as a plurality of oral contraceptive pills assembled in a package that will allow women of child bearing ability to effectively prevent conception for at least a four week interval or one cycle.
