

United States District Court,
W.D. Michigan, Southern Division.

SAINT-GOBAIN CORPORATION,
Plaintiff.

v.

GEMTRON CORPORATION,
Defendant.

No. 1:04-cv-387

Oct. 4, 2005.

ORDER CORRECTING TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR

WENDELL A. MILES, Senior District Judge.

On October 3, 2005, the court issued its Order on Claim Construction. It has come to the court's attention that the order contains a typographical error. Specifically, page 10 of the order, lines 9 through 11, contains the following sentence:

Mr. Miedema's affidavit is directed to the issue of infringement-which is a question of law-and not to the issue of claim construction-which is an issue of fact.

However, this sentence should instead read as follows:

Mr. Miedema's affidavit is directed to the issue of infringement-which is a question of fact-and not to the issue of claim construction-which is an issue of law.

The court therefore orders correction of the Order on Claim Construction, deleting the former sentence replacing it with insertion of the latter sentence.

So ordered.
