Ĵ,

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD

PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 98TH CONGRESS

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

H.R.4145 JAN 31 '84 E233 (7)	BILL		DATE		PAGE(S)
REMARKS: REMARKS BY MR. MCGRATH STATE JUSTICE INSTITUTE ACT DI MARKS BY MR. MCGRATH CALL DI MARKEN DI MARKEN DI THE MOUSS OF REPRESENTATION THE MOUSS OF REPRESENTATION THE MOUSS OF REPRESENTATION M. MCGRATH. M.S. Speaker, I rise Speaker Discussion of a state data and and improving their judicial systems. Act he National Institute of Correc- tions now provides assistance to State and improving their judicial systems. The responsibility of protecting the speaker data and the state of the state of the providing funds for necessary technic spruding funds for necessary technic sprud	DILL	u D /1/5		104
<text><text><section-header><section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header></section-header></text></text>				.94	E233
<section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header>	REMARKS:
<section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header>
HON. RATYMOND J. MACRATH. JOY NEW YORK IN THE TOUSE OF REFRESENTATIVES Theaday, January 31, 1984 • Mr. MCGRATH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of the creation of a State Justice Institute to ald State and local governments in strengthenings and improving their judicial systems. As the National Institute of Correc- tions now provides assistance to State would the State Justice Institute to assist the improvement of State court sys- tems. The responsibility of protecting the rights of all citizens under the Consti- tution is shared by State and Federal courts. Creation of a State Justice In- stitute would assist State courts in meeting their increasing obligations providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of The important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of the state courts will create a bitate down by in create a bitate abustice the station's total patter experimenting State courts in thure national policy development of State ourt systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts with a result a state sthe station's total patter expression. Mathem Altec		REMARKS BY MR. MCGRATH
HON. RATYMOND J. MACRATH. JOY NEW YORK IN THE TOUSE OF REFRESENTATIVES Theaday, January 31, 1984 • Mr. MCGRATH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of the creation of a State Justice Institute to ald State and local governments in strengthenings and improving their judicial systems. As the National Institute of Correc- tions now provides assistance to State would the State Justice Institute to assist the improvement of State court sys- tems. The responsibility of protecting the rights of all citizens under the Consti- tution is shared by State and Federal courts. Creation of a State Justice In- stitute would assist State courts in meeting their increasing obligations providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of The important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of the state courts will create a bitate down by in create a bitate abustice the station's total patter experimenting State courts in thure national policy development of State ourt systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts with a result a state sthe station's total patter expression. Mathem Altec
HON. RATYMOND J. MACRATH. JOY NEW YORK IN THE TOUSE OF REFRESENTATIVES Theaday, January 31, 1984 • Mr. MCGRATH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of the creation of a State Justice Institute to ald State and local governments in strengthenings and improving their judicial systems. As the National Institute of Correc- tions now provides assistance to State would the State Justice Institute to assist the improvement of State court sys- tems. The responsibility of protecting the rights of all citizens under the Consti- tution is shared by State and Federal courts. Creation of a State Justice In- stitute would assist State courts in meeting their increasing obligations providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of The important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of the state courts will create a bitate down by in create a bitate abustice the station's total patter experimenting State courts in thure national policy development of State ourt systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts with a result a state sthe station's total patter expression. Mathem Altec
<ul> <li>DF THE NUMBERSENTATIVES</li> <li>TURENGE NOTATIVES</li> <li>TRENGRATH, AJ. Speaker, I rise body support of the speaker, I rise body support of the speaker, I rise body support of the speaker, I rise speaker, I rise body support of the speaker and local governments in strengthening and improving their judicial systems. As the National Institute of Corrections now provides assistance to State and local correctional facilities, so would the State Justice Institute assist the improvement of State court systems. This of all citizens under the Constitutions is shared by State and Federal court. Creation of a State action in meeting their increasing obligations under both State and Federal court. Creation of a State court is provided assisticated the meeting their increasing obligations under both State and Federal and training. This will encourage the modernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of assess the select of the state state indicates the state indicates of the improvement of State courts will create a second by the state indicates of the improvement of State courts will create assistance. A national provement of state courts in the state indicates of the improvement of state courts will create a state indicates of the improvement of state courts will create assistance. A national provement of state indicates of the improvement of state indicates of the improvement of state indicates of the improvement of state out systems. In addition, a State out is infure national provement of state out is infure national provement</li></ul>
IN THE ROUSE OF REFRESENTATIVES     Trussday, January 31, 1884     Mr. McGRATH. Mr. Speaker, 1 rise     today in support of the creation of a     Support of the creation the <ul> <li>Mr. McGRATH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of the creation of a State Justice Institute to aid State and local governments in strengthening and improving their judicial systems. As the National Institute of Correc- tions now provides assistance to State and local correctional facilities, so would the State Justice Institute assist the improvement of State court syst- tems.</li> <li>Thes constitution of a State Justice In- stitute would assist State court syst- tems.</li> <li>The constitution of a State Justice In- stitute would assist State courts in meeting their increasing obligations providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for inprove- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own duction state as thus the response before the system state state state Justice ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own dustions and away thus treps of powers and federalism.</li> <li>This important for us to remove the competition between State Judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specificially for the improve- ment of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would full a current wild by representing State courts in future attainand divers in Institute parts and blocks total Justice system.</li> <li>Lestification to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciaries rousiderse.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>today in support of the creation of a State Justice Institute to aid State and local governments in strengthening and improving their Judicial systems. As the National Institute of Corrections no would the State Justice Institute assist the improvement of State court systems. The responsibility of protecting the improvement of State court systems. The responsibility of protecting the improvement of State courts in the improvement of the improvement of state justice Institute would assist State courts in meeting their increasing obligations under both State and Pederal law by providing funds for necessary technical sustainance, education research and training. This State incorrection of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improvement of state courts in the principles of separation of powers and federalism. The important for us to remove the competition between State judicaries and State courts will create specifically for the improvement of State courts will create a state judicaries and state accellate specifically for the improve a ment of State courts will create a state judicaries and state accellate specifically for the improve ment of State courts will create a state judicaries and state courts will create a state judicaries and state courts will create a state judicaries and state courts in thure national poly or the improve ment of State courts will create a state judicaries and state courts will create a state judicaries competition between State judicaries and state courts in thure national poly of the improve ment of State courts will create a state judicaries and state courts will create a state judicaries and state courts will be representing state courts will create a state judicaries courts in</li></ul> <ul> <li>local governments in strengthening and improving their Judicial systems. As the National Institute of Corrections now provides assistance to State and local correctional facilities, so would the State Justice Institute assist the improvement of State court systems. The responsibility of protecting the material courts. Creation of a State Justice Institute using their increasing obligations under the Constitution is shared by State and Pederal local assistance, education research and training. This will encourse the modernization of State court systems with respect to effective assisted to affect the statistical data. Establishment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improvement of a State justice institute would place responsibility for improvement of assist executive systems with this respect to effective.</li> <li>M. Ti important for us to remove the competition of State courts systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this respecting the principles of separation of powers and federalism.</li> <li>M. Ti important for us to remove the competition of State courts was the substation of set exception of powers and federalism.</li> <li>M. Ti assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the principles of separation of powers and state courts will create a beneficial environment for the administration of State courts in future national policy total justice system.</li> <li>Legislation to create a State Justice Institute specifies the statistical of the state systems.</li> </ul> and improving their judicial systems. As the National Institute of Correc- tions now provides assistance to State and local correctional facilities, so would the State Justice Institute assist the improvement of State court sys- tems. The responsibility of protecting the rights of all citizens under the Consti- tution is shared by State and Pederal courts. Creation of a State Justice In- stitute would assist State courts in meeting their increasing obligations under both Stata and Pederal law by providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State Justice In- seloads, budgeting, and development of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State Justice Institute sistance expectical you for the improve- ment of State courts with respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State Justice Institu- tion of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts will create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee kevel tions now provides assistance to State and local correctional facilities, so would the State Justice Institute assist the improvement of State court sys- tems. The responsibility of protecting the rights of all citizens under the Consti- tution is shared by State and Federal courts. Creation of a State Justice In- stitute would assist State courts in meeting their increasing obligations under both State and Federal law by providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourge the mod- ernization of State ourt systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ling the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. Anational program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State ourts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State ourts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State ourts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State ourts will create a beneficial institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level		and improving their judicial systems.
would the State Justice Institute assist the improvement of State court sys- tems. The responsibility of protecting the rights of all citizens under the Consti- tution is shared by State and Federal courts. Creation of a State Justice In- stitute would assist State courts in meeting their Increasing obligations under both State and Federal law by providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State ecurts wate courts yieldiciaries and State courts us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State ecurts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State courts yieldiciaries and State courts in future national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State courts yieldiciaries and State substee Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee Ved the improvement of State court sys- tems. The responsibility of protecting the rights of all citizens under the Consti- tution is shared by State and Federal courts. Creation of a State Justice In- stitute would assist State courts in meeting their increasing obligations under both State and Federal law by providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development- of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State ecutive agencies for Fed- eral assistance apecifically for the improve- ment of State courts ystems. In a State accutive agencies for Fed- eral assistance specifically for the damin- tistration of State courts ystems. In a State accutive agencies for Fed- eral assistance specifically for the amprove- ment of State courts with create a beneficial environment for the admin- tistration of State courts with create a beneficial environment for the admin- sistation of State courts with affect the Nation's total justice system. Legisation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee L look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level
The responsibility of protecting the rights of all citizens under the Consti- tution is shared by State and Federal courts. Creation of a State Justice In- stitute would assist State courts in meeting their increasing obligations under both State and Federal law by providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this respective their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State courts yestems. In ad- dition destate courts with create a beneficial environment for the admin- tistration of State courts yestems. In ad- dition, a State courts with create a beneficial environment for the admin- tistration of State courts with courts state secutive agencies for Fed- eral assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State courts with create a beneficial environment for the admin- tistration of State courts with create a beneficial environment for the admin- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee L look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level		the improvement of State court sys tution is shared by State and Federal courts. Creation of a State Justice In- stitute would assist State courts in meeting their increasing obligations under both State and Federal law by providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee, I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee kvel		The responsibility of protecting the courts. Creation of a State Justice In- stitute would assist State courts in meeting their increasing obligations under both State and Federal law by providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national ploy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system.
meeting their increasing obligations under both State and Federal law by providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. I is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the admin- tistration of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- tistration of state courts will create a beneficial environment for the Admin- istration of state courts will create a beneficial environment for the Admin- tistration of state courts will create a beneficial environment for the Admin- istration of state courts will create a beneficial environment for the Admin- istration of state courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorabie consideration of this measure at the committee kevel		courts. Creation of a State Justice In-under both State and Federal iaw by providing funds for necessary techni- cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the admin- istration of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, HR. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the commitdee kevel cal assistance, education research and training. This will encourage the mod- ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State courts systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, IR, 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the commidtee kevel		under both State and Federal law by ernization of State court systems with respect to efficient management of ca- seloads, budgeting, and development of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiclaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level		cal assistance, education research and seloads, budgeting, and development of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level of reliable statistical data. Establish- ment of a State Justice Institute would place responsibility for improve- ment of State court systems directly on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level <ul> <li>would place responsibility for improvement of State court systems directly</li> <li>on the judicial officials charged with</li> <li>this responsibility under their own</li> <li>Constitutions and laws, thus respecting the principles of separation of</li> <li>powers and federalism.</li> <li>It is important for us to remove the</li> <li>competition between State judiciaries</li> <li>and State executive agencies for Federal assistance. A national program of</li> <li>assistance specifically for the improvement of State courts will create a</li> <li>beneficial environment for the administration of State courts systems. In addition, a State Justice Institute would</li> <li>fill a current void by representing</li> <li>State courts in future national policy</li> <li>decisions that will affect the Nation's</li> <li>total justice system.</li> <li>Legislation to create a State Justice</li> <li>Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the</li> <li>House Judiciary Committee. I look</li> <li>forward to the favorable consideration</li> <li>of this measure at the committee kevel</li> </ul>		of reliable statistical data. Establish-on the judicial officials charged with this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level this responsibility under their own Constitutions and laws, thus respect- ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level ing the principles of separation of powers and federalism. It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level	ŀ	this responsibility under their own
It is important for us to remove the competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level		ing the principles of separation of competition between State judiciaries and State executive agencies for Fed- eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level eral assistance. A national program of assistance specifically for the improve- ment of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level		competition between State judiciaries ment of State courts will create a beneficial environment for the admin- istration of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level		eral assistance. A national program of istration of State court systems. In ad- dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level dition, a State Justice Institute would fill a current void by representing State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level State courts in future national policy decisions that will affect the Nation's total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level		dition, a State Justice Institute would total justice system. Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level		State courts in future national policy Legislation to create a State Justice Institute, H.R. 4145, is pending in the House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level House Judiciary Committee. I look forward to the favorable consideration of this measure at the committee level		Legislation to create a State Justice of this measure at the committee level		House Judiciary Committee. I look			