Mr. WEBER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. MICHEL. Mr. Speaker, I am happy to yield to the gentleman from Minnesota.

Mr. WEBER. Mr. Speaker, I just wondered if the distinguished majority leader could clarify something for me. I understand and I agree with his sentiment that if we are going to be able to finish up our work by Sunday it is worth working on Sunday. If we make a determination we are going to have to be in session next week, in any event, is it still the majority leader's determination to call a Saturday session as well?

Mr. FOLEY. If it is neccssary to complete action on suspensions or other business that seems to advance the adjournment, we will meet on Saturday. If we seem to be able to finish all of our business on Friday, then that would be a consideration, and perhaps by Thursday we will be able to give Members abetter idea.

I am reluctant to make any predictions at this time in an absolute way. Many Members rely on those when they are only estimates. I would say the better part of discretion is to assume that there will be a session every day this week, including Saturday.

Mr. MICHEL. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY BANKRUPTCY PROTECTION ACT OF 1987

Mr. EDWARDS of California. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on the Judiciary be discharged from further consideration of the Senate bill (S. 1626) to keep secure the rights of intellectual property licensors and licensees which come under the protection of title 11 of the United States Code, the Bankruptcy code, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

Mr. FISH.-Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I do so for the purpose of asking the gentleman from California to explain whether there are any substantive differences between S. 1626 and H.R. 5348, a bill that we passed earlier this afternoon.

Mr. EDWARDS of California. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. FISH. Mr. Speaker, I am happy to yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. EDWARDS of California. Mr. Speaker, S. 1626 is—except for some minor_technical_numbering_differences—identical to H.R. 5348, legislation passed by the House earlier today. The legislation relates to the treatment of intellectual property licenses by the bankrupicy laws. The Judiciary Committee report on H.R. 5348 is equally and totally applicable to S. 1626. I would urge my colleagues to pass S. 1626.

Mr. FISH. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman, and I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.
