Dear Ray:

Thanks for your letter of September 19 and September 20. So far the consensus appears to be that we should not be a member of IMRG and for the moment I see no reason to pursue that matter further.

Your letter of September 19 outlining some approaches to place SUPA before various industry groups addresses some very good points which I think should be raised during the Trustees' meeting in Atlanta. It seems to me that what you suggest is really part of the educational job for which we believe the SUPA organization is intended and any information which would guide the membership in dealing more effectively with companies would, I think, be welcome to them all. You might prepare an outline for the planned February meeting to logically discuss these items. I appreciate your attention to these various matters.

Best regards,

Very truly yours,

Howard W. Bremer
