Attention: Honorable William S. Moorhead, Chairman

Gentlemen:

The Wisconsin Alumni Research Foundation was formed in 1925 to promote scientific investigation and research at the University of Wisconsin and to provide means by which scientific discoveries, inventions and processes may be developed, applied and patented and to distribute its funds to or for scientific investigation and research at the University. In view of its over 50 years of experience which have resulted in many millions of dollars being granted to the University of Wisconsin in support of research, WARF considers itself to be expert in technology transfer.

It is from this background that this Foundation expresses its complete endorsement of the views presented by Mr. Howard W. Bremer for the American Council on Education at the Hearing before your Subcommittee on June 2, 1976, in Washington.

Very truly yours,
