Foundation
506 North Walnut Street
Madison, Wisconsin

Dear Howard:

Attached are copies of correspondence concerning an invention by Bernard Z. Friedlander which is briefly described as follows:

RHYTHMAT 70-A-- an instrumental device for precise measurement of rhythmic matching and rhythmic memory in human.

Since the work leading up to this invention was supported by HEW grant C-278(C1), it should be handled under the agreement with HEW.

Sincerely,

Bob
