Dear Howard:

You, Willard and Mary did a great job on the SUPA meeting and I was especially impressed with the program speakers. I have a feeling that we will pick up some new members in the near future.

I meant to brief you on what I have done in the southeast to push S.414. Instead I am attaching a copy of a letter I wrote and a list of people it went to. The letter was personalized for each state.

I am currently following up in Alabama in an effort to stimulate contact with Senator Heflin and Representative Shelby since they are members of the respective Judiciary Committees.

I will be ready to push for broad support in the House when you say the word.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

William O. Burke
