Dear Mr. Latker:

Please allow me to congratulate you for the brilliance of your presentation made before the Society of University Patent Administrators, annual meeting February 6, 1978 in Atlanta, Georgia. It gives me much encouragement to know of your philosophy and dedication. Your position is an extremely important one and I hope and pray for the benefit of our country that your viewpoints will carry the day. Our technological future and position in the world economy depends upon it.

Sincerely yours,

Lester R. Sauvage, M.D.
