PERIODICAL
CONTRIBUTION

MEMORANDUM

October 2, 1940

Remitter: Household Arts, Inc. (54004)--Class A?

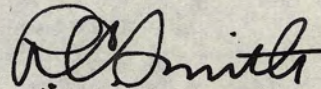

Title: "Handbook of Daily Household Arts, Vol. 1"

Question: Which is proper classification for material deposited, A1, A5, or KK?

The copy deposited is similar to the "King Features Syndicate" deposit in that it consists of a number of pages intended subsequently to appear as periodical contributions.

Mr. Wise and Mrs. Brady are of the opinion that no registration of a copyright claim is possible in this Office until after the works have appeared in the periodical, following which registration should be made as A5. Mr. Smith, however, holds that in view of the fact that the ~~work~~ <sup>work</sup> is primarily intended to advertise certain patterns identified by number and described as "Household Arts by Alice Brooks" the purchase price of which is ten cents, that the work is actually an advertisement of an article of manufacture, namely, a household pattern of Alice Brooks, and that registration should, therefore, be made for each periodical contribution under class KK.

Respectfully submitted,

Member of Revisory Board

Write for explanation of variance in date of publication and suggest registration for each article under class A5.--H.A.Howell.
