SEC. 203. LICENSING BY PERFORMING RIGHTS SOCIETIES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 5 of title 17, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

"§512. Determinations of reasonable license fee for individual proprietors

"In the case of any performing rights society subject to a consent decree which provides for the determination of reasonable license fees to be charged by the performing rights society, notwithstanding the provisions of that consent decree, an individual proprietor who owns or operates fewer than 3 food service or drinking establishments in which nondramatic musical works are performed publicly and who claims that any license agreement offered by that performing rights society to the industry of which the individual proprietor is a member is unreasonable in its license fee as to that individual proprietor, shall be entitled to determination of a reasonable license fee as follows:

"(1) The individual proprietor may commence such proceeding for determination of a reasonable license fee by filing an application in the applicable district court under paragraph (2) that a rate disagreement exists and by serving a copy of the application on the performing rights society. Such proceeding shall commence in the applicable district court within 90 days after the service of such copy, except that such 90-day requirement shall be subject to the administrative requirements of the court.

"(2) The proceeding under paragraph (1) shall be held, at the individual proprietor's election, in the judicial district of the district court with jurisdiction over the applicable consent decree or in that place of holding court of a district court that is the seat of the Federal circuit (other than the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit) in which the proprietor's establishment is located.

"(3) Such proceeding shall be held before the judge of the court with jurisdiction over the consent decree governing the performing rights society. At the discretion of the court, the proceeding shall be held before a special master or magistrate judge appointed by such judge. Should that consent decree provide for the appointment of an advisor or advisors to the court for any purpose, any such advisor shall be the special master so named by the court.

"(4) In any such proceeding, the industry rate, or, in the absence of an industry rate, the most recent license fee agreed to by the parties or determined by the court, shall be presumed to have been reasonable at the time it was agreed to or determined by the court. The burden of proof shall be on the individual proprietor to establish the reasonableness of any other fee it requests.

"(5) Pending the completion of such proceeding, the individual proprietor shall have the right to perform publicly the copyrighted musical compositions in the repertoire of the performing rights society, and shall pay an interim license fee, subject to retroactive adjustment when a final fee has been determined, in an amount equal to the industry rate, or, in the absence of an industry rate, the amount of the most recent license fee agreed to by the parties. Failure to pay such interim license fee shall result in immediate dismissal of the proceeding, and the individual proprietor shall then be deemed to have had no right to perform the copyrighted musical compositions in the repertoire of the performing rights society under this section from the date it submitted its notice commencing the proceeding.

"(6) Any decision rendered in such proceeding by a special master or magistrate judge named under paragraph (3) shall be reviewed by the presiding judge. Such proceeding, including such review, shall be concluded within 6 months after its commencement.

"(7) Any such final determination shall be binding only as to the individual proprietor commencing the proceeding, and shall not be applicable to any other proprietor or any other performing rights society, and the performing rights society shall be relieved of any obligation of nondiscrimination among similarly situated music users that may be imposed by the consent decree governing its operations.

"(8) For purposes of this section, the term 'industry rate' means the license fee a performing rights society has agreed to with, or which has been determined by the court for, a significant segment of the music user industry to which the individual proprietor belongs.
